INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING FORM 20

- A separate form for each principal must be submitted.
- A separate statement signed by the principal or the principal's representative authorizing the lobbyist to represent the principal must be submitted before registration is complete.
- The annual registration of $25 per principal must be paid at the time of registration. Make checks payable to E.B.L.R.T.F. (Executive Branch Lobbyist Registration Trust Fund)
- All of the information must be complete or forms will be returned. Do not use abbreviations.
- Registration is required BEFORE lobbying an agency or agency personnel.
- If a principal has one lobbyist registered, another lobbyist for that principal shall not be allowed to register until the principal appoints one of the lobbyists as the Designated Lobbyist for the purpose of reporting expenditures. The principal must appoint the designated lobbyist in writing.
- Any changes to the information provided on the registration form must be reported in writing to Lobbyist Registration within 15 days.
- Additional forms may be obtained from the Lobbyist Registration office.
- Photocopies of CE Form 20 may be submitted for registration but only with original signatures and notarization.
- The lobbyist or principal may cancel the lobbyist's registration for that principal by written notification to the Lobbyist Registration office. This cancellation must be provided promptly and, until received, the lobbyist will continue to be responsible for filing all required expenditure reports.
- Please refer to Section 112.3215, F.S., and Chapter 34-12, F.A.C., for the registration and reporting requirements for persons who register to lobby the Executive Branch.
